Hymn: With every creature sing

Let all of us with every creature sing,
    praise to our God!
Above us in the air
may we all be aware
of birds and bees in flight,
whether by day or night.
Sing with one voice to celebrate the life
    of creatures all!

Let all of us with every creature sing,
    praise to our God!
Across the tamed terrain
farmed now for stock and grain;
may woodland also thrive
and wildlife too survive.
Sing with one voice lest any be extinct,
    protect them all!

Let all of us with every creature sing,
    praise to our God!
Over the oceans wide
with rise and fall of tide
may all the plankton bloom for fishes to consume.
Sing with one voice to celebrate the life
    of creatures all!

Let all of us with every creature sing,
    praise to our God!
There deep within the earth,
in darkness comes new birth, beneath the tread of boots

among the worms and roots.
Sing with one voice lest any be extinct,
protect them all!

Let all of us with every creature sing,
praise to our God!
May we now play our part,
together taking heart;
remembering all God gave,
all creatures here to save.
Sing with one voice to celebrate the life
of creatures all!
